

Taylor Mountain – Mixed Conifer Mechanical Treatment

Taylor Mountain – Mixed Conifer Mechanical Treatment

Mechanically Thinned in 2010 with a 40% BA reduction

Old growth stand

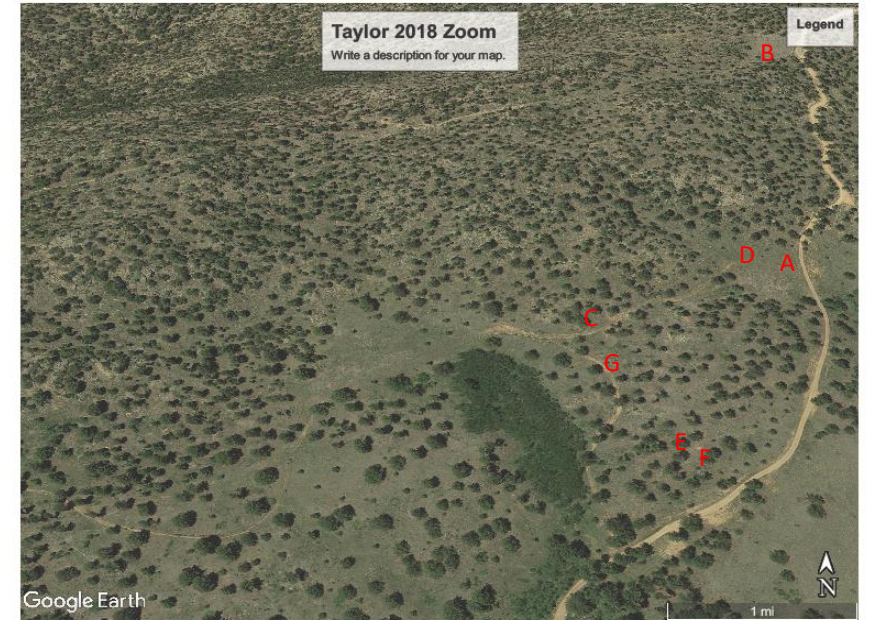

First CFLRP on South Zone

Originally a fuels project; incorporated restoration and resiliency components into implementation

Maintained/enhanced forest structures spatially and temporally

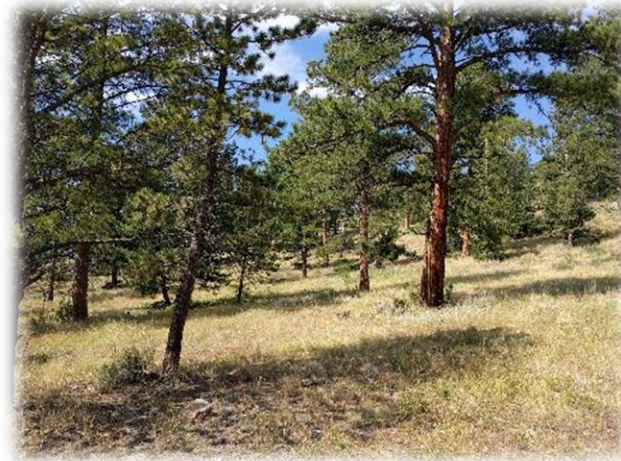

Maintained/enhanced aspen and meadow components

Created gap openings in canopy to reduce crown fire risk and promote ponderosa pine regeneration

A. Landing Site

B. Landing Site

D. Edge of restored landing

E. Thinned Stand

C.. Temp road converted back to trail

F. Thinned Stand

G. Edge of meadow and conifer